Amendment to the Prospectus of the Company

Terms not specifically defined herein shall have the same meaning as in the articles of incorporation (the "Articles") and in the latest prospectus of the Company (the "Prospectus").

Luxembourg, 18th August, 2026

Dear Shareholders,

Due to a technical error, the currencies of the Shares Classes are disclosed as "EUR" instead of "USD" under section "MAIN SHARE CLASSES AND FEES" of the relevant sub-funds' supplements in the Prospectus (the "Currencies").

The Board of Directors has therefore decided to correct the Currencies by amending the "MAIN SHARE CLASSES AND FEES" section of the relevant sub-funds' supplements in the Prospectus (the "Corrections").

The Currencies have always been correctly disclosed in the Key Information Documents of the Share Classes as well as on Amundi's website.

The Corrections do not have any consequences for the Shareholders as the correct Currencies have always been applied to the Share Classes.

The Corrections will be implemented in the next Prospectus.

The latest Prospectus and Key Information Documents are available on request free of charge at the Company's registered office and may be or consulted on the following website: www.amundietf.com.

Yours sincerely,

For the Board of Directors
