Objective and Investment Policy

The Sub-Fund seeks to offer investors capital growth through diversification of its investments over all categories of assets and a policy of following a 'value' approach.

To pursue its goal, it invests at least two-thirds of its Net Assets in equities, Equity-linked Instruments and bonds without any restriction in terms of market capitalisation, geographical diversification or in terms of what part of the assets of the Sub-Fund may be invested in a particular class of assets or a particular market. The investment process is based on fundamental analysis of the financial and business situation of the issuers, market outlook and other elements.

UK retail investors will not have any protection under the UK Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS).

Lower Risk Higher Risk

The SRI represents the risk and return profile as presented in the Key Information Document (KID). The lowest category does not imply that there is no risk. The SRI is not guaranteed and may change over time. The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movement in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

- The First Eagle Amundi International Fund returned +5.03% in January (USD, AUC share class).
- Energy, Industrials and Communication Services were the largest contributors to returns.
- Consumer Discretionary was the only detractor.
- Gold-related securities contributed to positive absolute returns

Month-End Market Review

Global equity markets started the year strong in January despite heightened geopolitical tensions as the US captured the president of Venezuela and traditional Western alliances became strained over President Trump's bid to acquire Greenland. Non-US markets continued to outperform the US with a 5.2% gain in the MSCI EAFE Index compared to a 2.2% increase in the MSCI World Index and a 1.5% return in the S&P 500 Index. Macroeconomic indicators in the US continued to suggest resilience with better-than-expected unemployment and retail sales and lower-than-expected inflation. Eurozone GDP growth also surprised to the upside. By style factor, value stocks continued to outperform growth in both the US and non-US markets, and US small caps outperformed US large caps. The US Treasury yield steepened during the month as longer maturity yields increased. Global bond markets also outperformed US fixed income as the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Index gained 0.9% while the Bloomberg US Aggregate Bond Index inched up 0.1%. The US Dollar Index was down 1.3% while gold bullion was up 13.3%.

First Eagle Amundi International Fund (FEAIF) Portfolio & Attribution

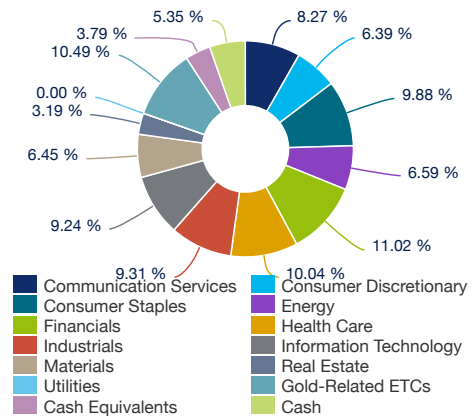

FEAIF returned 5.03% in January (USD, AUC share class). Our equity holdings contributed to performance, and gold-related securities also contributed. Energy, industrials and communication services were the largest contributors among equity sectors, while consumer discretionary was the only detractor and healthcare also lagged. Among individual positions, the Fund's top contributors included Samsung Electronics, SLB, C.H. Robinson, Alphabet and Meta Platforms. The largest detractors included Oracle, Salesforce, LVMH, Workday and Compagnie Financière Richemont. We established new equity positions in a North American financial company and a North American communication services company. We exited our position in F&G Annuities & Life during the month after acquiring shares of F&G Annuities & Life Inc. in December 2025 following Fidelity National Financial's (FNF) approval of a special stock distribution to its shareholders and the team was not interested in the name.
