EQUITY

* Source : Amundi. The above cover complete periods of 12 months for each calendar year. Past performance is no predictor of current and future results and does not guarantee future yield. Any losses or gains do not take into consideration any costs, commissions and fees incurred by the investor in the issue and buyout of the shares (e.g. taxes, brokerage fees or other commissions deducted by the financial intermediary). If performance is calculated in a currency other than the euro, any losses or gains generated can thereby be affected by exchange rate fluctuations (both upward and downward). The discrepancy accounts for the performance difference between the portfolio and the index.

Management commentary

In Europe, the consolidation phase continues, but markets remain generally positive for the year. The Euro Stoxx 50 rose slightly by +0.1% over the month and shows +15.8% since the beginning of the year. French equities ended flat, but the DAX consolidated (-0.5% over the month), nevertheless remaining the best-performing European index since the start of the year, with an increase of +19.7%.

The dollar rebound that began in mid-September appears to be coming to an end. The greenback depreciated slightly against the euro over the month: EUR/USD ended up +0.5% at 1.16 after dipping below 1.15. Gold continued to rise but did not close at a new high: the ounce ended at $4,239, an increase of +5.9% over the month. Finally, the price of oil fell due to expectations of a return of Russian production linked to the peace plan: Brent closed at $63/barrel, down -2.9%.
